Proposal to Add New Course Not Included in Curriculum Revision

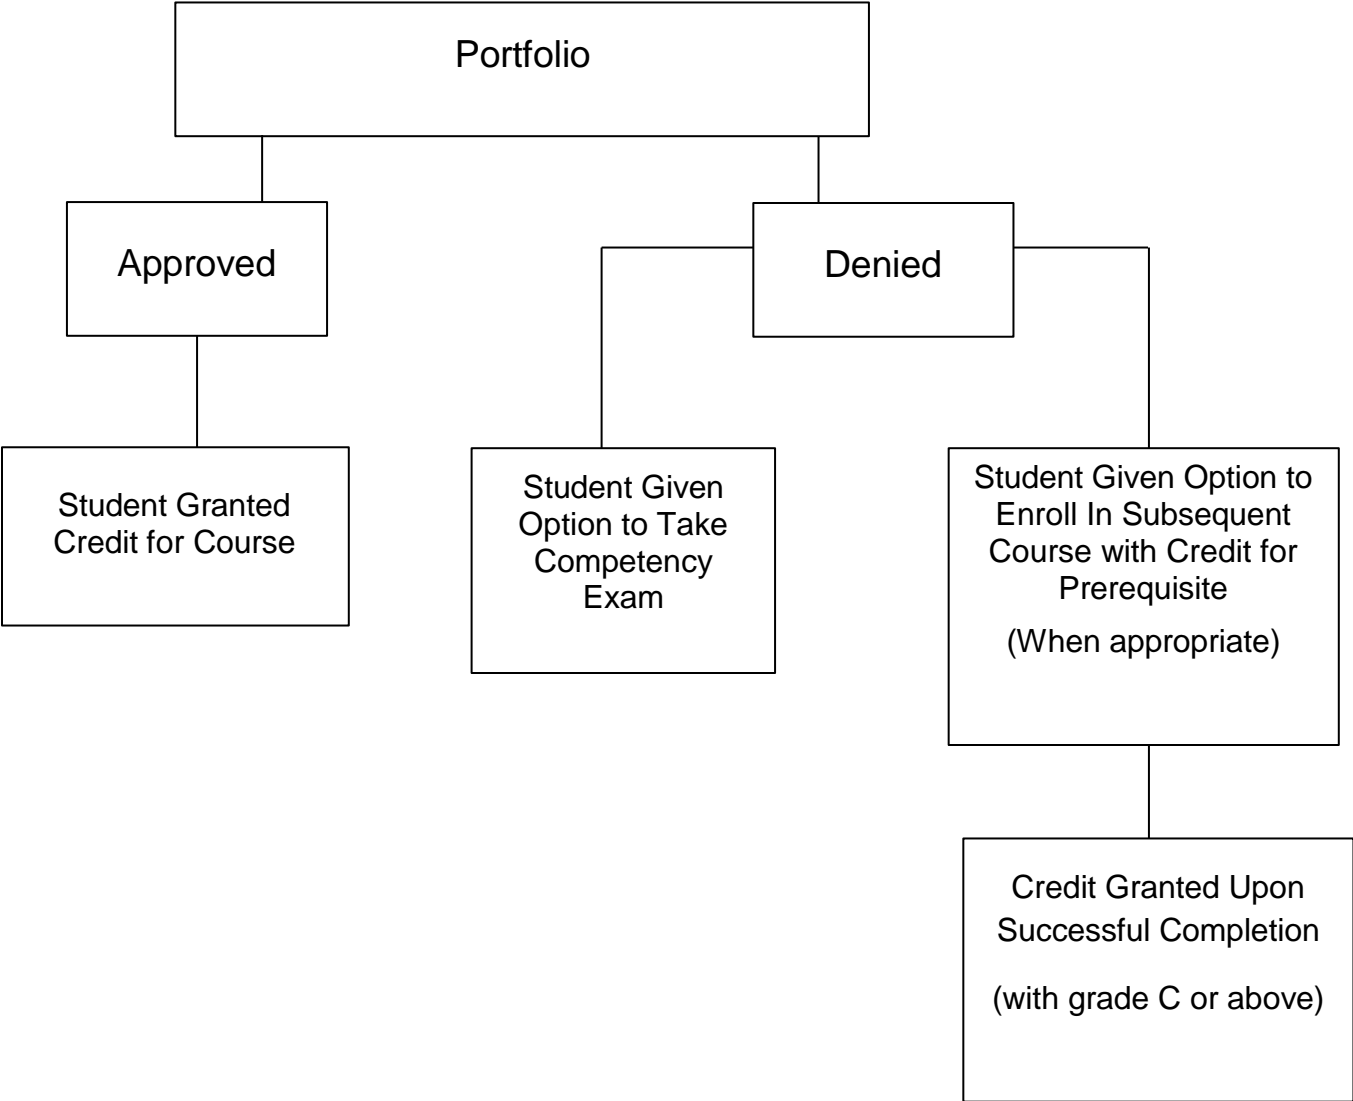

Due May 1 for Course Offering a Year from the Upcoming Fall Semester

The District's High School Course Catalogue includes course descriptions as approved by the Board of Education through its curriculum approval process. A proposal to add a new course not included in the District's curriculum revision process must adhere to the following process guidelines.

- x Proposal for any new course, not included in Curriculum Revision, should be submitted to the curriculum coordinator by May 1 of the year prior to submitting to Course Description Book. (see page 5 for proposal form)
- x The coordinator, along with appropriate teacher(s), will review the proposal and communicate approval or denial by June 1.
- x Course curriculum should be written and submitted for approval by October 1.
 - o Curriculum documents should contain the 5 essential components as well as a course description:
 - f Clear and specific measurable learning objectives (also MLOs)
 - f Assessments that includes classroom, interim, and summative assessments keyed to each objective appropriate for both formative (FOR learning) and summative (OF learning) purposes, including exemplars of student mastery
 - f Delineation of prerequisite essential skills, knowledge required prior to taking the course
 - f Instructional tools and resources
 - f Instructional approaches for classroom use such as model lessons and instructional strategies
